(Movement sequence: To music like The Kink's Dandy, we see E-V and LC-4 being chased in slo-motion by Ticoprian guards. They look like they will be caught at any moment, but suddenly GENERAL DAN'H and his ship swoops in and takes out the troops as E-V and LC-4 jump onto his craft. They fly away.)

Scene Seven

(Cut to...)

(PRESIDENT YA-WI enters his office. He sees ADON-RA sitting at his desk and tries to sneak back out.)

(ADON-RA points a gun at him.)

ADON-RA: Not so fast there, Prez.

PRESIDENT YA-WI: How did you get in here?

ADON-RA: Does that even matter? I mean, I could go into the long explanation, but it'd be merely expository. If I were you, I'd be much more concerned with the quantum blaster being pointed at your head at this moment.

PRESIDENT YA-WI: Are you going to kill me?

ADON-RA: Well. Yeah. That's why I bothered sneaking in here in the first place. Any last words?

PRESIDENT YA-WI: If you fire that weapon, you will have every soldier in the capitol swarming to this one location.

~~ADON-RA: Good last words.~~

PRESIDENT YA-WI: I know your species are famous for your ability to do violence, Adon-Ra, but even a human like yourself cannot hope to single-handedly defeat an entire planet full of military soldiers. Or am I wrong?

ADON-RA: Fine. Then I guess I'm just gonna have to punch you to death instead. That'll be equally as fun.

PRESIDENT YA-WI: If you attempt to kill me, I will have no choice but to order the execution of you and the rest of your team. Trust me, G'Bril has wanted to finish them off for years now.

ADON-RA: You know what, Ya-Wi. You're right. I don't want to shoot you. I want to draw this out. Make it a thing. You destroyed my entire species...that deserves something way more painful than just a simple shot to the head. You deserve to feel anguish in ways that the devil himself can't even imagine.

PRESIDENT YA-WI: I'm not afraid to die. If you strike me down now, I'll just come back twice as power—

(ADON-RA shoots PRESIDENT YA-WI.)

ADON-RA: Yeah? Well then let me see you do it.

(An alarm starts going off.)

ADON-RA: Aw crap.

(Cut to...)

(In the hull of a dark warship)

GENERAL DAN'H: Well, this is my warship. Along with being a fully operational and armed fighter craft, it's also equipped with—

E-V: Buttons. I get it.

GENERAL DAN'H: Are you okay?

E-V: Yeah. Thanks for saving me and the tin-can here. Not alotta folks woulda done that.

GENERAL DAN'H: Save your thanks for later until after I finish saving you and your people.

E-V: So now what?
