J'AN JAH: E-V, Dan'h wouldn't want us to risk ourselves by going after him.

cause it's the terrorist figure—

E-V: Then what about LC-4?

it's news.

J'AN JAH: What about him?

here and
Do you not

E-V: This isn't his fight. I took that robot off of Ticopria.
You soldiers might think Dan'h may not be worth it, but I'm responsible for that tin-can. If he's alive then I have to save him. But if he's not, well then I owe it to him to get some payback.

J'an. Seriously, do you really think this is an acceptable plan? Run away? Hide? The UGC isn't going to stop looking for us. They're not going to stop hunting us until they've finished what they started.
And contrary to popular belief, humans don't procreate by the dozens. Obviously, Adon-Ra and I are not going to birth a new race of humans. Even if we did have a baby, they're just gonna kill it. As much as you think this is a good idea, this isn't a new beginning. This is just an elongated death. I'm sorry, J'an. I want a real chance to live and part of that life is helping those that have helped me. I'm going to go save Dan'h and LC-4.
Not because it's part of some plan, but because it's the right thing to do. It's what any human would do. So if we have to die—let's do it the only way we know how.
By kicking someone's ass.
